

	Track 1: Models	Track 2: Interprofessional Integration	Track 3: Community	Track 4: Special Topics
PANEL 1 9:30-10:45am (EST)	Waiting for title Marshall University	Occupational Therapy and Physical Therapy Co-Treatments in Spinal Cord Injury: A Case Study Medical University of South Carolina	Establishing a Community Advisory Board Temple University	From Pandemic to Progress: How COVID Impacted Pro Bono Practice at the University of St. Augustine for Health Science: University of St. Augustine
	D.I.M.E.S: How Utica R.I.S.E. Is and Plans to Expand Utica College	Interest and Feasibility of Medication Management in a Pro Bono Student Run Clinic Medical University of South Carolina	Expanding Outreach and Integrating Community University of Evansville	Video Games and Telehealth: Bridging the Clinic and Home for a Person Post- Stroke Rutgers University
	Why Diving Headfirst into ICE isn't as Bad as it Sounds? Wingate University	Design, Application, and Ongoing Development of an Integrated Psychology Service within an Outpatient Student-run Pro Bono Clinic Widener University	Building a Community Partnership During a Pandemic University of Florida	Growing Paints: How the CARES Clinic Conquered COVID-19 Medical University of South Carolina
PANEL 2 11:00am- 12:15pm (EST)	Little Knights Clinic: An Expansion Story Gannon University	A Patient and Community- Centered Approach: The Interaction and Impact of Interprofessionalism & Pro-Bono Care University of Pittsburgh	Evaluating Efforts to Improve Community Health Literacy Western Carolina University	Determining the Mental Health Needs at a Student-Run-Pro-Bono Clinic Medical University of South Carolina
	Instituting a Toy Lending Library Widener University	Physical Therapy Student Beliefs, Behaviors and Attitudes of Collaborative Care With a Virtual and In-Person Interprofessional Team Visit Wayne State University	More than Words: Do Patients of Diverse Backgrounds Choose Different Words to Describe Their Pain? High Point University	No One Can Pour From an Empty Cup: The Importance of Self-Care for Clients and Clinicians Widener University
	PT Pro Bono Enhanced by OT and Restructured to Meet Community Needs Gannon University	Assessing How Students Integrate Interprofessionalism and Person- Centered Care Within a Community Clinic Setting St. Ambrose University	Language Key to new Life, the Key to a New Life Briar Cliff University	Enhancing Self-Care & Health Habits to Better Serve Others Quinnipiac University

	Track 1: Models	Track 2: Interprofessional Integration	Track 3: Community	Track 4: Special Topics
PANEL 3 1:45-3:00pm (EST)	CPPTC Mock Clinic: A Strategy to Bounce Back to Peer Leadership Rutgers University	Working with Bilingual Students: A Case Study in School-Based Speech-Language Pathology Widener University	Implementing a Client and Community-Focused Approach to Pro Bono Rehabilitation Services Provided by JaySTART University of Kansas	Pro Bono Network Open Forum Learn about the Pro Bono Network from current members in an informal discussion
	Integrating Student Leadership in Clinical Expansion Widener University	Implementation of Texting Services to Improve Patient Communication Briar Cliff University	Integrating Assistive Technology to Promote Recovery Principles in Community Outreach Programs for People with Neurologic Conditions Central Michigan University
	Occupational Therapy and Speech Language Pathology Pro Bono Clinic: A Student Perspective University of St. Augustine	A Call for Communication: The Need for Medical Interpreters in Our Clinics Briar Cliff University	Integrando Terapia Fisica en la Comunidad Latinx (Integrating Physical Therapy in the Latinx Community) Elon University
PANEL 4 3:15-4:30pm (EST)	Benefits of Digital Outcomes and a Look at Data Medical University of South Carolina	Equip Thrive with Population Health & Strategic Partnerships Quinnipiac University	Using Social Determinants of Health to Guide Strategic Planning of Student Run Pro Bono Clinic Arcadia University	The Importance of Health Outreach: Health Promotion Fair Increasing Patient Health Independency Students to Pelvic Floor Physical Therapy Virginia Commonwealth University
	Active Shooter Emergency Action Planning for Pro Bono Clinic at Briar Cliff University: Keeping Everyone Safe Briar Cliff University	Integrating SPTA's into the Pro Bono Clinic Briar Cliff University	Assessing Social Determinants of Health in a Pro Bono Physical Therapy Clinic: A Planned Prospective Study University of Missouri	Connecting Women and Physical Therapy Students to Pelvic Floor Physical Therapy Indiana University